

Waltham Farmers' Market Performances 2021

Thanks to Gerry Beaudoin for kicking it off in June. Performances are scheduled for 11am to noon.

July 10 – Brad Faucher

Brad is a guitarist, singer, music teacher, short film producer, and live music producer from Waltham. He has coordinated music for Waltham Riverfest. and has run Session450 at Joco's Bar and Kitchen, a weekly live blues, jazz, and soul music event.

July 24 – Dave B and the Hot Shots

This group performs jump blues, swing, R&B and jazz. Dave Birkin is a Waltham resident who plays saxophone, flute, and sings. He has shared the stage with many jazz, blues and rock greats in the '70s with the legendary Powerhouse Blues Band.

July 31 – Ruth Rappaport and Ben Wetherbee

Ruth Rappaport is a guitarist and vocalist, and has performed with The Poodles and The Hoot Owls. Ben Wetherbee plays fiddle. Together they perform songs that span a variety of genres.

August 7 – Willie T & Doctor X

They are a dynamic, Boston-based singer/song-writer duo, performing an exciting mix of original songs and eclectic covers. Their music evokes an overall 1970s roots-rock feel.

August 14 – Calamus

This duo has played at the market before as Crazy Fingers. They perform classic rock and Grateful Dead tunes, and are from Salem, MA.

August 21 – Moody Street String Band

Named for where they first rehearsed, they were formed in the early 1990s. Today's band features fiddle, accordion, banjo, mandolin, guitars and bass. Their repertoire is a blend of Irish, English, Scottish and Old-timey music.

August 28 – Solstice Sackbuts

They are a chamber trio offering many types of programs, including medieval and Renaissance music, as well as Classical programs, pop and jazz.

If any performance is rained out, it will be re-scheduled for September or October. Visit our website walthamfarmersmarket.org for updates.

Waltham Farmers' Market Performances 2021

Thanks to Gerry Beaudoin for kicking it off in June. Performances are scheduled for 11am to noon.

July 10 – Brad Faucher

Brad is a guitarist, singer, music teacher, short film producer, and live music producer from Waltham. He has coordinated music for Waltham Riverfest. and has run Session450 at Joco's Bar and Kitchen, a weekly live blues, jazz, and soul music event.

July 24 – Dave B and the Hot Shots

This group performs jump blues, swing, R&B and jazz. Dave Birkin is a Waltham resident who plays saxophone, flute, and sings. He has shared the stage with many jazz, blues and rock greats in the '70s with the legendary Powerhouse Blues Band.

July 31 – Ruth Rappaport and Ben Wetherbee

Ruth Rappaport is a guitarist and vocalist, and has performed with The Poodles and The Hoot Owls. Ben Wetherbee plays fiddle. Together they perform songs that span a variety of genres.

August 7 – Willie T & Doctor X

They are a dynamic, Boston-based singer/song-writer duo, performing an exciting mix of original songs and eclectic covers. Their music evokes an overall 1970s roots-rock feel.

August 14 – Calamus

This duo has played at the market before as Crazy Fingers. They perform classic rock and Grateful Dead tunes, and are from Salem, MA.

August 21 – Moody Street String Band

Named for where they first rehearsed, they were formed in the early 1990s. Today's band features fiddle, accordion, banjo, mandolin, guitars and bass. Their repertoire is a blend of Irish, English, Scottish and Old-timey music.

August 28 – Solstice Sackbuts

They are a chamber trio offering many types of programs, including medieval and Renaissance music, as well as Classical programs, pop and jazz.

If any performance is rained out, it will be re-scheduled for September or October. Visit our website walthamfarmersmarket.org for updates.